

Director of Nursing (Full time position)

St John's House, part of the Protestant Aid group of charities providing Nursing Home Care within a recently completed state-of-the-art 56 bed Nursing Home in Dublin 4, are seeking to recruit a Director of Nursing. At St John's House, we are committed to delivering a high standard of care and hospitality in a person-centred environment that fosters mutual respect for the rights, dignity and protection of the residents in our care. Our team is motivated to ensure that all residents and staff are happy and content. We recognise decision-making capacity as a fundamental right, enabling choice, independence and freedom. Our continual focus is to maintain high standards of nursing practice by facilitating and supporting continuous professional development among our staff.

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE WILL:

- Organise and manage the residential operations of the nursing home and maintain the high standard of care and ethos for which St John's House is highly reputed.
- Undertake the role and responsibilities of the Person in Charge, as laid down in the Health Act 2007 and related regulations and in compliance with the standards of the Health Information and Quality Authority (HIQA) and all other relevant legislation.
- Have a minimum of three (3) years' experience in a senior management capacity in a health care setting.
- Have a recognised post registration management qualification in Health or a related field.
- Have a background in, and relevant experience in Gerontological nursing.
- Be able to demonstrate proven leadership, management, accountability and budgetary experience in a similar role, working with a large, highly skilled and flexible workforce and collaborate with other medical staff and healthcare professionals.
- Be registered with the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland (NMBI). Possess excellent interpersonal, communication and IT skills.
